Days 2–3: Snorkeling in Dahab

- Day 2: Begin your underwater adventure at Dahab's renowned snorkeling spots, such as the Blue Hole or the Three Pools.
 - Day 3: Explore more of Dahab's underwater marvels, taking time to relax at the beach or stroll through the charming Bedouin village.

Days 4–5: St. Catherine Monastery & Mount Moses

- Day 4:

Travel to St. Catherine, a site of immense spiritual importance in Christianity, Judaism, and Islam. Visit St. Catherine Monastery, one of the oldest continuously operating monasteries in the world, built in the 6th century by Emperor Justinian.

 - The monastery is said to house the Burning Bush, where God spoke to Moses, according to the Book of Exodus.
 - The Sinai area is also believed to be where Moses received the Ten Commandments, making it a pivotal location in Abrahamic traditions.
 - For Christians, the monastery has ties to early saints and martyrs, and it contains priceless relics, ancient manuscripts, and stunning icons.

Spend the evening reflecting on the profound spiritual heritage of the site and stay overnight at a nearby guesthouse.
- Day 5:

Before dawn, embark on a hike up Mount Sinai (Moses Mountain), a pilgrimage site revered by Christians, Jews, and Muslims alike. According to Christian tradition, Jesus himself may have traversed this region during his time in Egypt, particularly during the Holy Family's flight from Herod's persecution.

 - Witness the breathtaking sunrise from the summit, a moment often described as deeply spiritual by visitors, with panoramic views of the Sinai desert.
 - Descend and return to Dahab, taking time to absorb the sacred history of the region.
